☞ On August 6th, at 8:15am, at the sound of the bell rung by a representative from the bereaved families and youth representative, a moment of silence is observed for the deceased. At that moment, factory sirens as well as temple and church bells are rung throughout the city, and Hiroshima is deeply wrapped in prayer. The Mayor of Hiroshima delivers a peace declaration addressed to the whole world at the ceremony. On this day, people recall what happened on August 6th, 1945, and in their prayers, ponder the meaning of peace.
